

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

Always keep matches and lighters locked away from children "

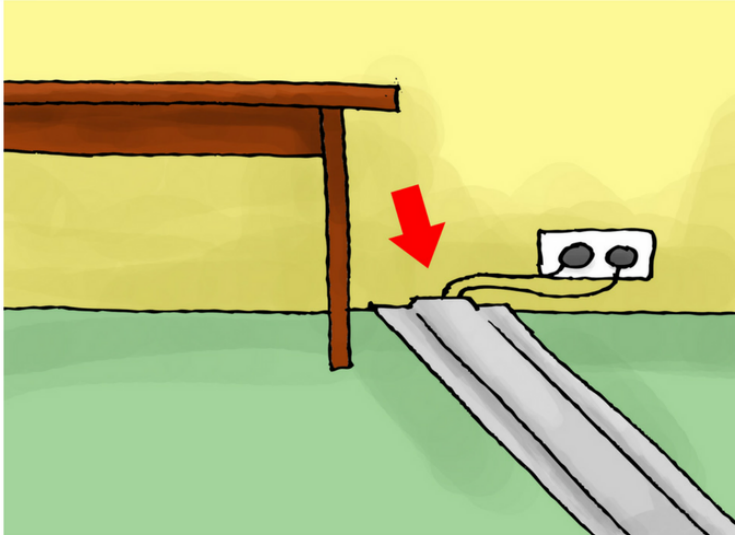

www.ndma.gov.in

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

Keep fire extinguisher at strategic points, and ensure functionality; it is important that everyone knows how to use them "

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

" Do not run electric wire/chord under carpets or in areas of heavy foot traffic "

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

" Smoke alarms should be fitted in all buildings; Properly functioning alarm can improve the chances of surviving fire by 50 percent "

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

" Smoke alarms should be located on every level of a building. They should be positioned outside bedrooms, & at the top and bottom of the stairs "

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

" Test the alarms at least once every month "

FIRE SAFETY

ESCAPING A FIRE

≡ " Once clear of the fire, call emergency services " ≡

www.ndma.gov.in

FIRE SAFETY

PREPARATION

≡ " Replace batteries regularly-testing will show if it is necessary to replace them more than annually " ≡

www.ndma.gov.in

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

" Try to ensure that that there are at least two escape routes from every room "

www.ndma.gov.in

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

" Note possible escape aids, such as trees, balconies or adjoining roofs "

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

" Ensure that your windows will open-test regularly and check for ease of opening (from the inside) "

www.ndma.gov.in

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

" Consider having escape ladders, collapsible or rope ones, if your residence consists of more than one level "

www.ndma.gov.in

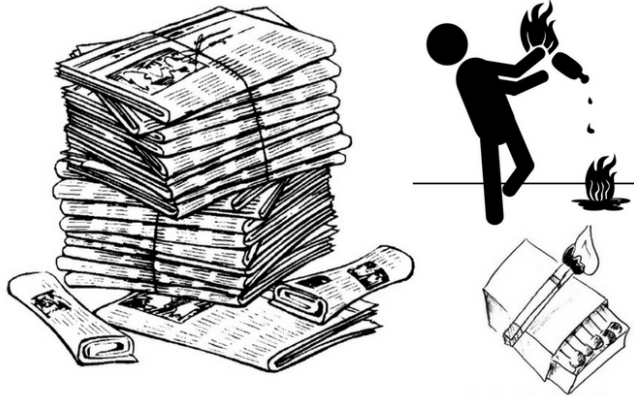

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

" Ensure that all heating appliances are maintained regularly by qualified personnel "

FIRE SAFETY PREPARATION

" Do not accumulate old newspapers or combustible material. Do not store flammable liquids in the house. Do not smoke or have naked flame near combustible material "

